You should apply for a homestay and pay the $100 fee as early as possible to reserve the family that you want. Families are available first to students who are under age 18 because they cannot rent an apartment alone. If an acceptable homestay family is not available, we can help you to rent an apartment or extended stay hotel room and refund your homestay application fee. ULI will give your homestay family this form so that they can learn a little more about you. Homestay rent is $650 per month and is paid directly to the homestay family. This cost includes a bed-room, 3 meals per day, and transportation to and from school (unless otherwise indicated). You may be responsible for preparing your own breakfast and sack lunch. The homestay family will also provide bed linens, a storage area for clothes, towels, and washcloths. Although University Language Institute facilitates the contact between students and housing providers, any housing agreement or related services shall be between the student and the housing provider and not between either party and University Language Institute. ULI is not liable to either party in regards to the obligations of any housing agreement or related services. You are responsible for following the rules of your homestay family and paying on time or you may be asked to leave. Your homestay will end 2 weeks after your last day of class at ULI.
