ULI Homestay Family Contract

I/We, the homestay family, understand that the responsibilities for hosting an international homestay student in my/our home include providing the following: a furnished bedroom (preferably a private room unless otherwise requested by the student), a bathroom, breakfast, sack lunch, evening meal, and transportation to and from school. I/We will endeavor to provide a loving, Christian environment for the Homestay Student.

I/We, the homestay family, will endeavor to be patient and understanding with the international homestay student that we host in our home. I/We will respect the culture and religion of my/our homestay student. I/We will strive to communicate with the homestay student and work toward the resolution of any misunderstandings or conflicts that may arise. If we cannot resolve the misunderstanding, we will notify ULI for mediation. If the conflict proves to be irreconcilable and the homestay student moves out, I/we will refund all homestay fees for any remaining days that have been paid in advance.

I/We, the homestay family, will alert University Language Institute if problems arise with the homestay student. I/We will communicate with University Language Institute if the homestay student decides to move out of the homestay or is talking about doing so. We understand that the student should move out within 2 weeks of their last day of class so that my/our home will be available for a new ULI student.

Waiver of Liability

I/We, the undersigned, agree to the above contract with the homestay student and University Language Institute. We hereby release University Language Institute from any and all current and future claims, charges, costs, and/or causes of action for loss of property, personal injury, illness, accident or death sustained by any member of the homestay family or their guests, incurred as a result of any action taken by the homestay student, introduced by University Language Institute.

Although University Language Institute facilitates the contact between students and housing providers, any housing agreement or related services shall be between the student and the housing provider and not between either party and University Language Institute. University Language Institute is not liable to either party in regards to the obligations of any housing agreement or related services.
